

Notice Concerning Your Privacy Rights

This notice will provide you with information concerning our policies with respect to nonpublic personal information that we collect about you in connection with financial products and services we provide to you. Nonpublic personal information means information we collect in connection with providing a financial product or service to you. Nonpublic personal information does not include information that is available through public sources, such as telephone directories or government records.

“We”, “our”, and “us”, when used in this notice, means Mansfield Bank. This is our privacy notice for our customers. When we use the words “you” and “your” we mean the following types of customers:

- All of our customers who have a continuing relationship with us, such as a deposit or loan account, safe deposit box, individual retirement account where we act as custodian, or users of our financial, investment, or economic advisory services (for a fee).

The confidentiality of your information is important to us as we recognize that you do business with us based upon your trust that we will keep your information confidential as described in this notice.

We collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms.
- Information regarding your transactions with us.
- Information we receive from a consumer-reporting agency.

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our customers or former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law. This policy will continue to remain in effect after you cease to receive financial products and services from us.

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those of our employees who need to know that information in order for us to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard your nonpublic personal information.

If you have any questions concerning our Privacy Policy, please contact our Privacy Officer at 508-851-3600.
